UNIVERSITY

This artistic bench, in relief against University Hall, may be sat upon by seniors alone.

Why, Henri, nobody but a senior would be ascetic enough to sit there alone. It's so cozy!

Here's the Woman's Building. This is where we hold Shan Kives, Woman's League teas, sewing circles, and so forth. Never-binnit.

Oh, Henri, is it as pretty as that inside?

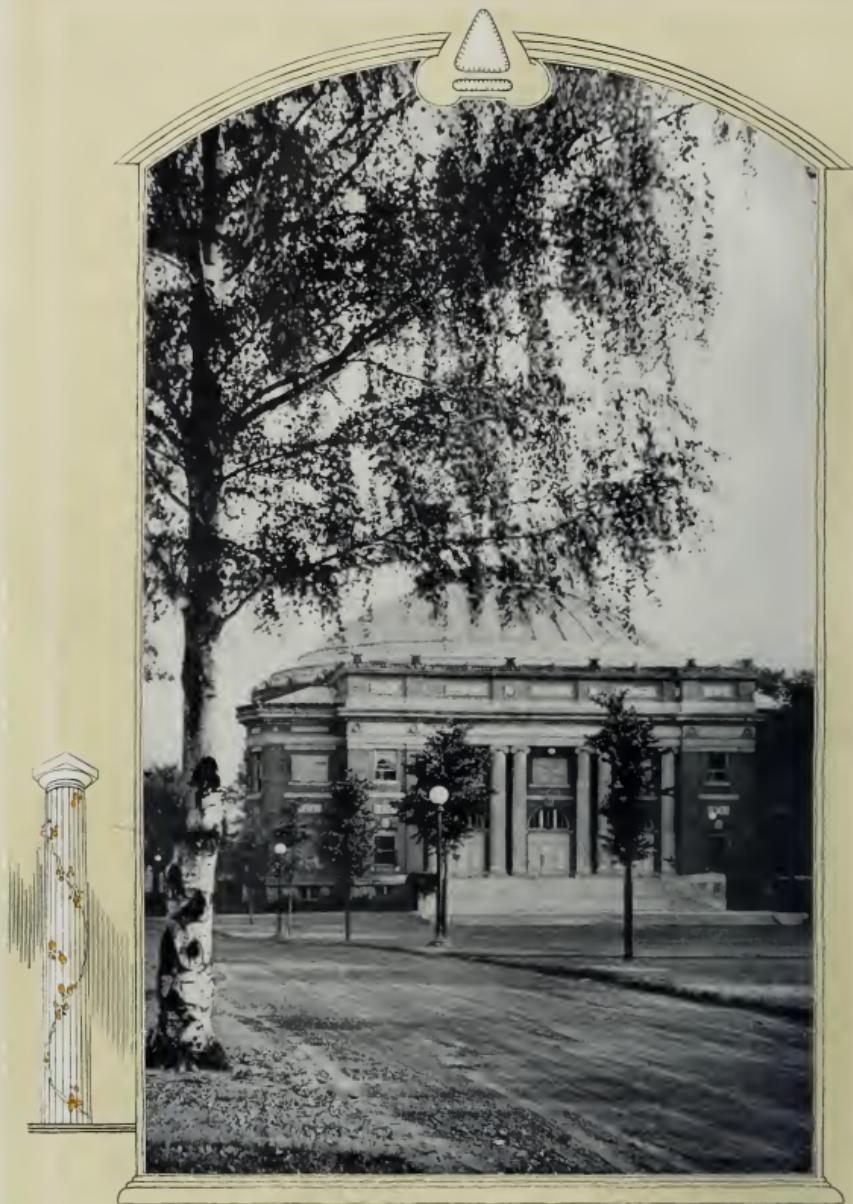

*Here, on the south of the Woman's Building, is one porch where women are safe from men's propinquity.
There's nobody on it now. Do the women ever stay there?*

*In the Armory, we hold gymkhanas, track meets, artillery circuses, skating parties, baseball practice, basketball games, Commencement,—
But, Henri, don't you ever fight?*

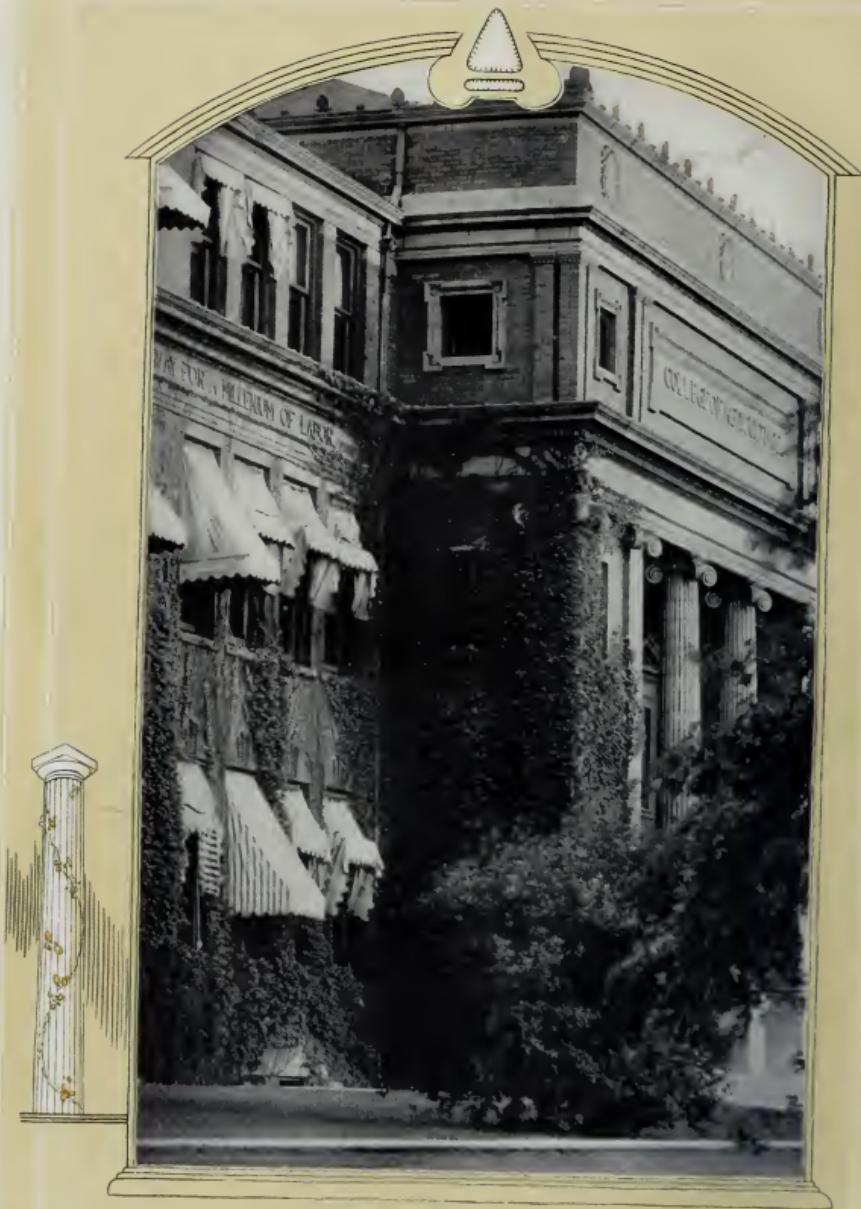

Lincoln Hall, the seat of seminars, inhabited by men of all degrees and women with wigwam-shaped collars.
The inmates of these places have temperament.
You don't say! I'd like to see a few.

*This is our auditorium, which will seat 2500 people. It has a pipe organ and a picture of Ulysses sneaking home.
Isn't it pretty? I like that funny quiltwork of colored bricks.*

Here is the south entrance of Smith Memorial Hall. Great place to take music, Bobbie. Professor Rivette says every practice room is acoustically isolated.
Yes, Henri, but where is the noise coming from?

This is the building where they experiment in horticulture, forericulture, arbori-

Oh, yes. I've heard about it. They sent Uncle Elias directions for making buttermilk without clabber, curds, or whey

and we're progressed to the front of Smith Memorial.
A fine temple for Polyhymnia, isn't it?
Oh, is that what you call Mr. Stisen?

*Here in the Chemistry Building, Professor H. Tuessofore propounded the theory of disjunctive nuclei in the hydrogen circle, and discovered hyperchemosynthetic—
My, Henri, how did he stand it? Let's go on.*

*In the Law Building is Moot Court room which is used for trials, examinations, and choir practice.
Why are those fellows who just went in carrying swagger sticks?*

Our mediæval looking Education Building houses the most modern teachers' laboratory in America. Here potential pupils are instructed by potential professors of the University high school. How darling!

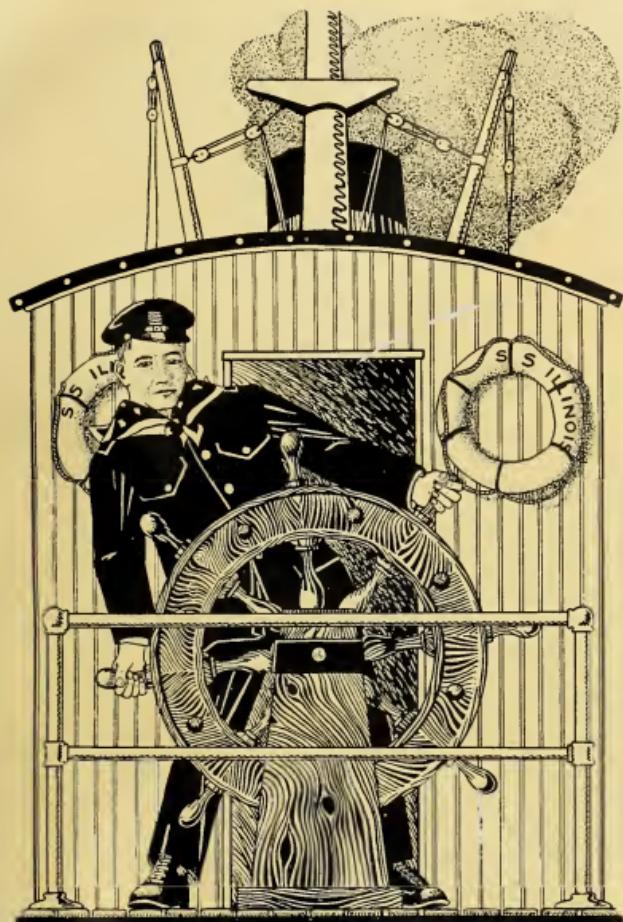

where Professor Rixette prepares concrete blocks to smash, or gloats over the prospect of heating chunks of iron to watch them cool.

Is he the man that built the Lilliputian tunnel last spring?

*Well, Bobbie, we're back to the Library. You've seen most of the principal buildings once and several of them twice. Which one's the prettiest?
I just love them all!*

Dean of Men

DEAN T. A. CLARK

The office of the Dean of Men was established originally because the President of the University, who then had in his hands all the details of discipline and personal contact with students, found that he did not have time to give to these things. The purpose of the office is still to look after the individual, to come, as far as it is humanly possible, into personal contact with him. The Dean of Men tries sincerely to know every man, or if that is impossible, to know something about him, to look after him when he is sick, to give him advice when he is in doubt, and, if he needs correction, to suggest it to him. He tries to see that the moral and social conditions surrounding the individual are as healthy as possible. His main object in living is to help the individual man to be a good student and to become a good citizen.

THOMAS ARKLE CLARK

Dean of Women

The present Dean of Women of the University of Illinois assumed the duties of her office in September of the freshman year of the class of 1922. She undertook the responsibility, in as far as might be, of caring for the living conditions of women students, of maintaining ideals of scholarship and academic earnestness, and of setting social and moral standards.

She would take this opportunity to express her appreciation of the manner in which the women met the hysteria of the S. A. T. C. year and the influenza epidemic, of the ability they showed in the conduct of their part of the campaigns, of the spirit of co-operation that has characterized their attitude towards campus activities and that has done much to hasten a return to normal conditions and, of the high grade of scholarship that they have maintained throughout the four years.

Liberal Arts and Sciences

DEAN BABCOCK

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences sets itself to serve two large groups of students. Of its registration of 2600, approximately three-fifths are in the general liberal curriculum. The remainder are distributed among the curricula in which the student may specialize in preparation for law, medicine, journalism, the ministry, home economics, education, social service, economic entomology, chemistry and chemical engineering. Besides the students who are registered in the College, the great departments of English, mathematics, chemistry, modern languages, history, botany and zoology, serve large numbers of students registered in the other colleges of the University. Practically every division of the University is thus debtor to the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. In all the great departments no small part of the instruction and investigation of the men of professional rank is under the general direction of the Graduate School leading up to the Masters and Doctors degrees.

Engineering

DEAN RICHARDS

The College of Engineering has ten departments of instruction and it offers fourteen specialized curricula, including Architecture, Architectural Engineering, Ceramic Chemistry, Ceramic Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Mining Engineering, Municipal and Sanitary Engineering, General Engineering Physics, Railway Civil Engineering, Railway Electrical Engineering, and Railway Mechanical Engineering. Its physical plant is extensive and its equipment for instruction and research is in many respects unexcelled. The staff of instruction includes a considerable number of men who are everywhere recognized as authorities in their subjects. With the exceptional facilities thus afforded, students in the College have unusual opportunities for study in the fundamental sciences and in a great variety of highly specialized applications of these sciences in various divisions of industry. No institution in America has done more to promote research in engineering science than the University of Illinois. Wherever engineering is practiced, the Engineering Experiment Station is known for its valuable contributions to knowledge. The Station has already published 126 bulletins and nine circulars; and numerous manuscripts presenting the results of investigations recently completed have already been accepted for publication. Over fifty investigations are in progress at the present time.

The work of this organization is a fine example of the service which the University is rendering to the people of the state and country.

Agriculture

DEAN DAVENPORT

The Agricultural College is the organization through which the University administers its work in the field of agriculture and home economics. It conducts three lines of activity: one of instruction to the students of the University, one of research through the organization known as the Experiment Station, and one of extension, as provided in the co-operative Federal legislation known as the Smith Lever Act.

The normal registration of students in the College of Agriculture ranges from a thousand to twelve hundred and fifty. Through the required subjects of the course of instruction, the student is assured a satisfactory education in technical lines, in chemistry and the biological sciences, and in English. There is a liberal proportion of free electives which may be used for strengthening the course in any desired direction.

The equipment in most lines covered by the College of Agriculture is excellent, and in some it is superior, particularly in agronomy, horticulture, and certain lines of animal and dairy husbandry. The course in home economics is one of the best in the country, whether considered from the standpoint of the house-keeper or of the one who takes the course for professional purposes.

Commerce

DEAN THOMPSON

A marked development in higher education during the past five years has been in business training. Less than a decade ago the opinion very generally prevailed that the only place in which to secure the fundamentals of business was in the school of experience. Under the stress, however, of a constantly increasing competition this idea has given way to a newer one which stands for scientific business training in which the major stress is laid on fundamentals and not details; and as a result the colleges of commerce the country over are crowded with students preparing for executive positions in business.

The College of Commerce and Business Administration has played a prominent part in this development. In 1915-1916 the total enrollment was 581. In 1919-1920 a total of 1580 was enrolled; in 1920-1921 the number was 1841; while on November 5, 1921 it was 1977. Thus, in a period of six years the increase has been more than double the number enrolled in 1916.

For convenience of administration the work is divided into curriculums, general business, commercial and civic secretaries, banking, insurance, accountancy, railway administration, railway transportation, commercial teachers, foreign commerce, industrial administration, and commerce and law. Enrollment in these curriculums ranges from 1329 in general business to six in commercial teachers.

ACCOUNTANCY PRACTICE

Law

DEAN JONES

The College of Law is concerned primarily with preparing students for the practice of law in Illinois. Therefore, it trains its students not only in the fundamental principals of Anglo-American law, which fit for practice in any state, but also in the peculiar local application and adaptation of the English common law. As in other first-class schools, the case method of study is used.

Its facilities for law study and teaching are better than ever before, and are now equalled by only a very few of the best known American law schools. The law faculty now numbers eight members, all of whom have had experience in practice or on the bench, but now devote their entire time to the school. The law library numbers nearly 40,000 volumes and is one of the eight or nine largest and best-selected law school libraries in America. It contains a substantially complete collection of American and English legal literature and the bulk of the reports and statutes of Ireland, Scotland and the various British colonies. There is also an excellent collection of books on Roman Law and the modern civil law.

Three years of law study preceded by two years of college work is required for graduation with the LL.B. degree. In this respect, as in all other matters, the College of Law fully complies with the recommendations of the American Bar Association as to the requirements and facilities necessary for sound legal education. Students who devote six years or more to college work and the law course may receive the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) upon completion of the law course with a B average and submission of a satisfactory thesis. For this purpose there are combined six-year courses with the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and the College of Commerce and Business Administration.

In no law school can a better training for practice in Illinois be secured.

Education

DEAN CHADSEY

The College of Education is undertaking to train young men and women for positions of all kinds in the educational world. Normal schools and teacher's colleges have, as perhaps their most important duty, the training of teachers for the elementary schools of the country. The College of Education is especially interested in the proper professional training of high school teachers for administrative and supervisory positions in the public school systems of the United States. It also is attempting to do its share in educational research whereby improved methods of instruction and increased knowledge concerning educational problems may be forthcoming.

C. E. CHADSEY

Music

The School of Music of the University of Illinois is unique among music departments in state institutions, for it is the only one in the country at which a student may obtain a thorough education in music without other financial expenditure than the usual fee which every student at the State University pays. This gives to every young person in the state a most unusual opportunity to study music.

Under the supervision of members of the School of Music faculty, the Sunday Vesper Organ Recitals are carried on each week, as is the work of the University Choral Society of two hundred members, the University Orchestra, the University Men's Glee Club, and the series of Faculty and Student's Recitals given throughout the year.

F. B. STIVEN

DIRECTOR STIVEN

Graduate

The Graduate School represents the organized efforts and resources of the University for the purpose of giving opportunities for the most advanced study and the promotion of research. These two functions, however, are by no means separate; for the spirit of investigation is the life of graduate study and the ideal of graduate work is one and the same for all graduate students. Some are fitting themselves for higher teaching and administrative positions. Others are looking forward to careers in commerce, industry, engineering and the several professions. But the one great purpose of all graduate training is to educate students in the methods and materials of their subjects so that they may become not only experts but also independent investigators in their chosen fields.

A. H. DANIELS

DEAN DANIELS

Library

DIRECTOR WINSOR

The University of Illinois Library includes, strictly speaking, all of the books, pamphlets, etc., owned by the University except office records. The Library, therefore, includes the libraries of the College of Medicine, College of Dentistry and the School of Pharmacy, located in Chicago, as well as the libraries on the campus in Urbana. These Chicago libraries number 28,442 volumes and include a good collection of the scientific sets needed for medical study and research.

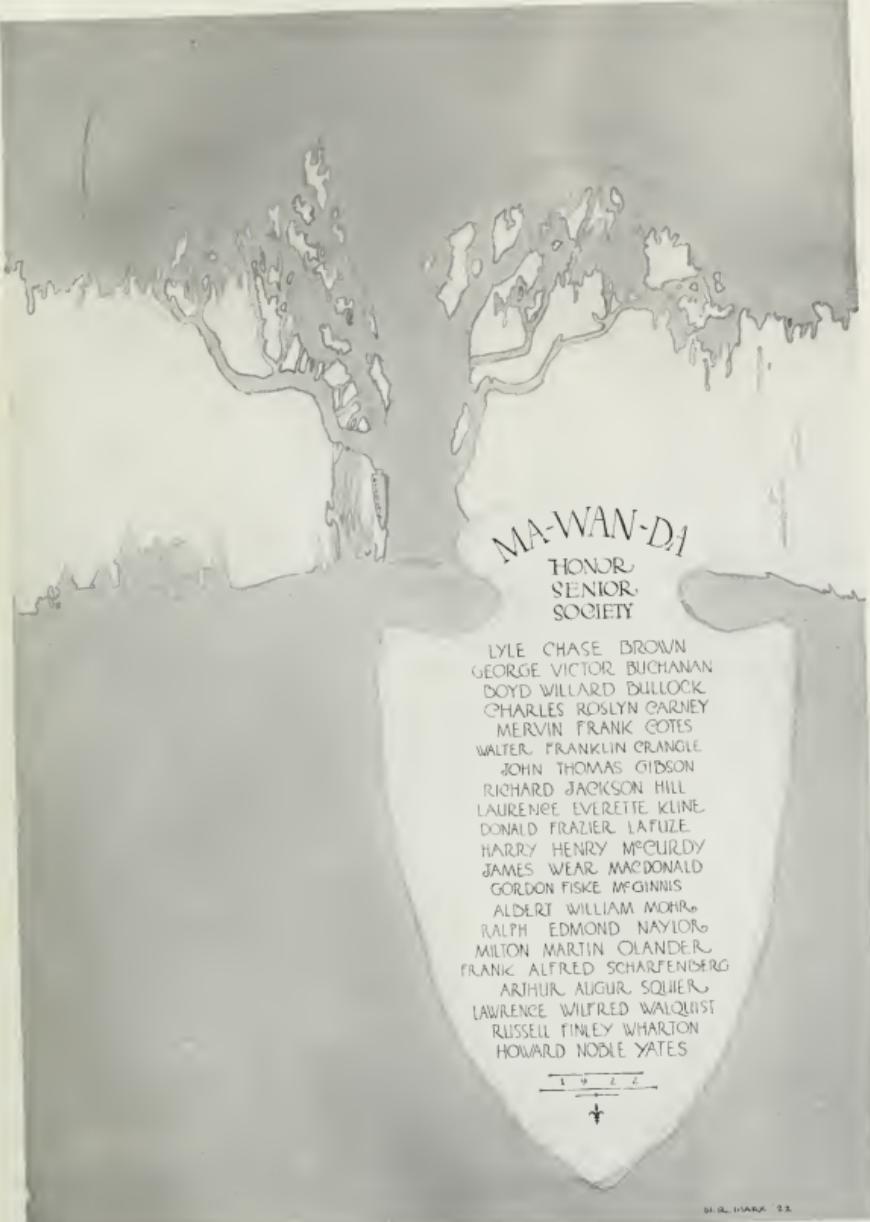

In Urbana the General Library and the various college and departmental libraries and reading rooms contained altogether on January 1, 1922, 471,618 volumes, 5,691 pieces of music, 52,240 catalogued pamphlets, besides thousands of uncatalogued pamphlets, a few photographs, manuscripts, medals and engravings.

Nature has shown in thousands of lives that the span of "three score years and ten by virtue of strength four score" may be revised to read four or five score and by virtue of strength many more. If these years have been given to some how shall they be attained by many? By a more extensive knowledge of the laws of health and disease. This knowledge is directly proportionate to the energy expended in their study. Our energies today are directed largely toward repairing the broken-down human machine. We must know more of the materials and forces, their relations and correlations in order that this precious machine may be kept out of the repair shop.

Two strong medical organizations of the State of Illinois have united in an effort to construct and maintain a great group of hospitals, institutes, laboratories, and libraries, which will be devoted to a study of the causation and prevention, as well as the alleviation and cure, of disease. The former Director of the Department of Public Welfare and the former President of the University secured from the General Assembly of 1919 something over $1,500,000 for the beginnings of this group. Director Jenkins and President Kinley secured a like amount from the last General Assembly for the further development of this group. When the buildings are completed, they will constitute one of the greatest institutions in the country for the advancement of medical knowledge.

What nobler can be done by the people of a state than to erect a great temple dedicated to the health and happiness of their children and those of all generations to come.

A. C. EYCLESHYMER

NEW MEDICAL BUILDINGS

Dentistry

DEAN MOOREHEAD

The most pronounced advance in dental education occurred in connection with the admission of students in September 1921 when a year of college was required for admission.

Only a few years ago the dental curriculum required three years of thirty-two weeks each. Later the curriculum was extended to four years of thirty-two weeks each, requiring for admission fifteen units from an accredited high school. During the last few years, however, it has come to be widely recognized that dentistry is in fact a specialty of medicine, and this being true, the student of dentistry must in a large sense be trained in terms of general medicine. One year of college for admission was adopted by fourteen of the university dental schools last fall, and although the attendance in the first year classes in these institutions was very materially reduced, the change was effected without any serious injury. Co-incident with the extension of the curriculum is the feeling that dentistry ultimately must be housed within the precincts of the University; that university standards must be adopted in all schools of dentistry. While dental education is, therefore, undergoing a wholesome evolution, it offers even at this point in its development unusual opportunities scientifically and materially.

The College of Dentistry of the University of Illinois offers a most attractive opportunity in the choice of a profession to all the students on the campus at Urbana.

DENTAL LABORATORIES

Pharmacy

DEAN DAY

The School of Pharmacy has had a very successful year with an enrollment of 260 students of whom 200 were enrolled in the first year. This is the largest freshman class in the history of the school.

A bacteriological laboratory is the latest addition to the equipment and has been fitted up on the fourth floor of the college building in rooms which were previously used for storage. The laboratory occupies two rooms, the largest fitted with 38 individual desks, the smaller room provided with an outfit of incubators, sterilizers and other apparatus for use of the students in common.

The School of Pharmacy has spoken for the dispensing privileges in the new State Hospital and if its expectations are realized there will be opportunity to give the senior students actual practise in the dispensing of bona fide prescriptions under the supervision of a qualified and well-trained pharmacist. As the out-patient departments are developed it is expected that a large variety of prescriptions from many practitioners will result and this will afford training of exceptional value.

The Stadium Campaign

GEORGE HUFF

ELMER EKBLAW

ROBERT ZUPPKE

THE BIG THREE

The Stadium Campaign is over. The great army of Illini Stadium workers from Maine to California, from Texas to Michigan, has disbanded. The bright, fervid fire of Loyalty that burst into wild flame for the months of the campaign now smoulders as a bed of living embers, ready to break forth again should need arise.

Thousands of students on the campus, thousands of alumni the world over, hundreds of friends of our University everywhere, who had their part in the work, are now eagerly looking forward to the day of dedication. As they consecrated themselves to the work, so their work must be consecrated to the noble purposes for which the Stadium was conceived.

A student body better physically, mentally, and spiritually; an alumnus body more loyal and active; a state citizenry more interested and ready to support its splendid University; they are assured. And when our beautiful Stadium stands completed, the pride of our prairie people, may it be a fitting memorial to the living dead whose names its columns will recall throughout all history.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

The Campaign

Early in February the various committees were chosen and the Stadium offices were opened in the Union Building. The first work was to complete the organization and then came the real task,—“selling the idea” to the student body.

Propaganda took the form of mass meetings, parades, speeches, contests, pictures, posters, not to mention thousands of personal conferences that were held. Literature, such as an “Illini Supplement,” a “Stadium Organ,” and a “Sales Manual,” was distributed broadcast, all in an effort to sell the idea to the students.

Finally, on Monday afternoon, April 25, the climax was reached when school was dismissed and every student in the university laid all other cares aside and went to the Mass Meeting, determined to do his part in helping to raise that $350,000. That was the spirit which raised $750,000 for Illinois’ great Memorial Stadium.

The Illinois Union

JAMES MACDONALD

As an organization of the Men of the University, the Illinois Union has done more, perhaps, than anything else in promoting a good spirit of co-operation among its members, numbering nearly three thousand. Its activities are many, such as, conducting student dances each Friday and Saturday night, giving the Student Opera every spring, supervising Homecoming celebrations, and giving mixers and smokers for the men students. It is more and more becoming a powerful factor in University life. Each year it broadens its scope and assumes more responsibilities in its already large number of interests. We may look forward to the time when, housed in a new home worthy of a great undertaking, the Illinois Union will become the dominating and controlling spirit in the life of the men students of the University

ACTIVITIES OF THE COUNCIL

The Student Council of the University of Illinois is a student governing body which is in close contact through its members with every branch of student enterprise and which can truly represent the student body. This is the first year that the Council has been a mixed one. The need of a mixed council was found necessary this year to deal with problems concerning both the men and women of the university.

The Council's activities consist of appointing the Honor Commission, electing the Varsity cheerleader, the supervision of all ticket sales for class, college and organization dances, celebrations, and mixers. It also passes on all campaigns to raise funds by solicitation of the general student body before any such campaigns are presented to the Council of Administration. All traditions and customs of the student body are determined by the council. It acts as the organ of the student body in communicating with the Council of Administration on behalf of the student body. It is the student governing body where the interests of men and women together are centered.

Honor Commission

A collective Honor System was put into operation at Illinois in the spring of 1919 by action of the University Senate and an overwhelming vote of the Student Body.

The system is guarded by a commission of four seniors and three juniors appointed each year by the Student Council. This commission tries all alleged violations of the system, sees that the needed publicity is obtained and acts for the students in all matters pertaining to the system.

The system is now nearing the close of its third and most successful year. The students have realized their responsibilities and lived up to their part of the agreement during the past year as never before. By their actions they have proven that they are one of the very few student bodies in this country that can successfully carry on an Honor System.

A successful Honor System is Illinois' greatest student accomplishment.

The Illini Publishing Company

DR. F. W. SCOTT

Chairman

VICTOR KRANNERT

Business Manager

The Illini Publishing Company is the tie that binds all the student publications of the University, providing them all the advantages of co-operation and expert supervision without interfering with their individual initiative and development. It is a corporation consisting of four students elected by the students and three members of the faculty appointed by the Council of Administration. It appoints the staffs of all member publications and directs their business policy. It publishes the Daily Illini, The Illio, The Illinois Magazine, The Siren, The Technograph, The Agriculturist, The Enterpriser, and The Architectural Year Book. A part of the surplus earnings of its publications goes into the company treasury for equipment. During the eleven years of its existence it has accumulated property worth thirty thousand dollars, most of which is invested in its printing plant, which produces all of its publications except the Illio.

PROM LEADERS

As sparkling, sapphire, green and purple Northern Lights illuminated the hanging icicles and the softly falling snow of a unique northland scene, two hundred and seventy formal promenaders walked through the intricacies of the grand march of the 1922 Junior Prom, the evening of December 9, 1921 in the Gym Annex.

The couples stepped along to the syncopation of the combined orchestras of Blumenthal and Donahue which, at the end of the march, burst into a frenzy of the wildest jazz, announcing the first dance of the season's most gala occasion. The couples presented a picturesque sight to the observers in the balcony as they danced with the imitation snow resting on their gorgeous gowns and trim dress suits.

The lighted, glistening icicles, the gayly colored lights, the white walls, and the brilliantly decorated booths transformed the Annex into an ice palace, glowing with life and color.

Time passed swiftly in this fairyland of carefree pleasure, and as two o'clock approached, the Northern Lights began to twinkle, grow dim, and slowly fade away, leaving the 1922 Junior Prom a memory of the greatest dance of the year.

The Senior Ball

GEORGE CHANDLER

Seniors are planning a stately celebration for their last social function as undergraduates at Illinois—the Senior Ball. On June 12, the members of the class will give the party as a fitting close to their college days. From the formation of the grand march at 9:00 o'clock, an atmosphere of "eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we say good-bye" will do much to change the Annex into an enchanting ballroom. The committee expects to make the Senior Ball a pompous and splendid affair which the members of the class will recall with glad remembrance in the years to come.

On the night of February 24, 1922, the lure of the sword proved mightier than the pen, and, casting books aside, the University donned Sam Browne belts and went to the Military Ball.

The interior of the Gym Annex was decorated in flags and the varied hued emblems were in sharp contrast with the olive drab and navy blue uniforms of the dancers. Four squat machine guns, a French 75, and the seventeen guidons of every branch of the University Brigade, furthered the military atmosphere.

Sophomore Cotillion

It was January 6, 1922. As the chimes in the Library tower struck the hour, the hands of the great clock sped backward millions of years until they had once more reached the beginning of time.

Out of the drabness of routine life we stepped into the gaiety of the Garden of Eden. From their elevated position at the right of the Garden, seven, glistening Ethopians were swaying in the throes of syncopation. Kaleidoscopic streamers fluttered from the ceiling, and from the corners of the Garden myriad colored lights played upon the dancers. Huge, artistic lanterns interspersed in the streamers shed an opaque light upon the scene. As the music stopped, the echo was taken from the other side of the Garden by Jinks Bryan's orchestra. Continuous music was one of the novelties that made this a feature dance of the year.

Union Dances

JEROME FLAHERTY

The dances given Friday and Saturday nights each week-end by the Illinois Union have been more popular with the student body this year than ever before. It is due, perhaps, to the fact that dances are only given this year at Bradley Hall instead of at two halls as was their policy last year. The dances have been materially improved by the use of more elaborate decorations and the introduction of better music.

Bradley has been redecorated in a very pleasing manner and the orchestra has been moved to a more advantageous position at the east end of the hall. The music this year, by Keck's Orchestra, has always met with the enthusiastic approval of the dancers.

The dance committee has outdone itself in offering the maximum amusement at the minimum expense. In addition to the regular Friday and Saturday dances the Union gave a Post Prom dance, a Post Cotillion dance, a Valentine dance and several novelty dances between semesters that delighted the students with their extraordinary features.

This willingness on the part of the Union to give the students the best and cleanest kind of dancing is only one of the many services that this organization is performing on the campus.

"The Tailor Made Man" was Mask and Bauble's contribution to the Homecoming festivities, and was a decided success.

Leonard Turner in the role of the German Tutor was easily the best actor on the stage, but the other actors must be given due credit for their part in making the production such an admirable one.

The organization showed a worthy tendency toward the use of the larger cast, and the consequent interest of a larger number of students in dramatics.

Post Exam Jubilee

On February seventh and eighth the Auditorium was filled with its annual assemblage of Post Exam Jubileers. The entertainment was versatile as to kind, and variable as to quality.

Sigma Phi Epsilon had its name engraved on the first place trophy for its presentation of a pantomime with a setting of corn shocks and the moon, entitled "A Nocturnal Gambol."

"What Shall We Name It?" displayed speed and originality and won second place for Phi Kappa Tau. Not the least of the merits was the fine scimitar dance which brought the act to a close.

Raymond Dvorak, the "Versatile Piano Wizard," ably defended his title in the playing of McDowell's Concerto and an original selection which he called "The Old Time Moving Picture Theater Pianist." The judges awarded him first place in the individual stunt contest.

Barnett and Chandler took second honors in the individual stunts with their ramblings through some vaudeville lines, and they called it "Mike and Ike, They Look Alike."

University Revue

Four stunts competed for the two loving cups at the University Revue on November 11th at the Auditorium. The Woman's Residence Hall presented "When Effie Went to College," embellished with all the floor-sweeping skirts, high standing pompadours, and wasp-like waists with which the co-eds of 1895 camouflaged themselves. The old time damsel swished off with the first prize, too.

Modern was the stunt which Chi Omega presented. "The Nightmare Shop" was the name of it, and it was all about a certain old doll shop dealer whose indulgence in the realm of forbidden spirits called forth a nightmare—not of distorted snakes, but of living dolls. The "mummy of the Queen of Shewas" brought him to the realization of the fact that it was all a dream.

Delta Gamma, with some clever songs and characters, told us that "It pays to Advertise."

Gamma Phi Beta built a futurist village studio stunt around a story called "Rainbow."

The Air Service Unit was organized the second semester of last year with less than a hundred men. This fall twice that number were enrolled. With this increase in size active work was started toward getting a hangar and some planes. Next fall the unit should have at least two planes for giving the members of the advanced courses flying instruction. With an increase in equipment the instruction will be more complete, and a roster of five hundred men is expected next year.

Woman's Activities

Woman's League

The Woman's League is composed of all the women of the University. Its underlying principle and purpose is that of giving women an organization through which to speak and act. Through the Woman's Welfare Committee, and with Dean Mason, the Woman's League works to better the housing and living conditions of the women.

Among its activities are mixers, and "Big Sister" parties.

The presence of over five hundred high school athletes on Illinois Field marked the advent of the 27th Annual Interscholastic meet. They came from all parts of the state and were as representative a group as any that have participated in years past. The preliminary events were run off Friday afternoon, May 20th, so that the finals could be settled on Saturday morning.

Champaign was easily the pick of Class A, by hanging up 38 points with University High in second place with 24 1-5 points. The Class B results showed Forrest first with 19 points and Carlinville second with 11 points. The whole showing was remarkable, especially on the part of the Champaign stars.

In the tennis tourney, Rice of Hyde Park won first in the singles, while Rice and Gans of Hyde Park also landed first place in the doubles.

“Stadium Homecoming” it was called because it marked the termination of a great campaign—a campaign that placed subscriptions amounting to two million dollars in the Stadium treasury. The alumni campaign was as successful as the student drive, and the satisfaction of knowing that the job had been well done was the real reward for many hours of hard labor. Why shouldn’t this be just cause for celebration?

The outdoor events scheduled for Friday afternoon had to be postponed until Saturday morning on account of bad weather. Early Saturday morning everyone turned out for the Hobo Parade, which started from Second and Daniel and ended at the Armory. There the prizes were awarded. By this time the Soph and Frosh warriors had donned their war paint in preparation for the great conflict. Colors fastened to the tops of greased poles were the objectives, and the resulting struggle afforded great sport for the spectators. The Sophs came out victorious.

The cross-country run which followed immediately was won by Illinois. Swanson running a beautiful race won easily, but was followed closely by Wharton and McGinnis who tied for second place. One o’clock was the time set for the Sachem Block “I” snake dance, and by the time the line reached Illinois Field the stands were packed with spectators. The game was a hard fought contest, but ended in Chicago’s favor, 14-6.

Alpha Tau Omega and Alpha Gamma Rho were awarded the cups for fraternity house decorations, and Alpha Chi Omega received first prize for the sorority house decorations.

THE PROGRAM

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28

7:00 P.M.—Pep Meeting in the Gym Annex.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29

10:30 A.M.—Michigan, Ohio, and Illinois Cross-Country Run, starting and ending at the drill field.

7:00 P.M.—Stadium Meeting—Auditorium.

8:30 P.M.—Dad's Day Mixer—Gym Annex.

To say that the Third Annual Dad's Day was a big success is to state the facts of the case very mildly. From the Pep Meeting on Friday to the Dad's Day Mixer on Saturday night each of the twelve hundred Dads had the time of his life. The victory in the cross-country run over Michigan and Ohio, the inspection of the University Buildings, the entertainment in the organized houses, the Stadium Meeting and the Mixer kept the Dads well entertained and the fact that Michigan won the football game had no effect on their high spirits. East may be East and West may be West, but when twelve hundred Dads from every section of the country unite with their sons in the pursuit of pleasure, East and West come together also to insure the success of the reunion.

Life at Illinois

is more than purely academic ~ its activities are well rounded and broad; its scope extensive. These factors, blended in the spirit of Illinois Loyalty, produce graduates of stronger character. To portray the helpful influence of these outside activities the following pages are dedicated.

"Stadium Enthusiasm" was irresistible, and permeated every square foot of the campus; its pentup energy had to break loose in the joys of Tramp Day.

There were men tramps, women tramps, hobo tramps, kid tramps, dog tramps—even parlor tramps—but the final tramp was the tramp of “Zup” that ended the festivities at noon.

Spring is a happy time—then, the Frosh discard their green in the flames of cap burning, and become potential Sophs; then, deserving juniors and sophomores find their names among Ma-Wan-Da and Sachem pledges.

The Stadium parade was significant in predicting the future greatness of Illinois Athletics. Sorority floats were clever and original, and filled a useful place in the whole campaign.

The happy season must be welcomed by the May Fete. Illinois' women become Fairies, and pay homage to the Queen of May—it's a beautiful ceremony.

And now the Interscholastic Circus. Fraternities uncover their dramatic abilities, and fleet runners bear sorority colors in the sorority relay. An added attraction this year was a sham battle put on by the Military Department in realistic manner.

The circus would be incomplete without the trapeze artists and a multitude of clowns. All of these attractions included in a weekend program give our high school visitors a comprehensive idea of Illinois.

The diploma represents the reward of four years of earnest work, for, after all, the University is a serious place where men and women may prepare themselves for useful and profitable careers.

Dad's Day affords the dads an opportunity to see the University in full swing, and to obtain a concrete idea of University life. The Military parade is always an interesting feature.

Homecoming would not be Homecoming without the scrap. The greased pole was inaugurated this year, and proved to be the classic contest. The Sophomores won for a change.

To describe the annual Hobo Parade in a fitting manner would be an endless task. If the testimony of Homecomers may be taken as valid evidence, the display of the Class of '22 was entirely up to standard.

There were animals both wild and tame, Deans of Men, and even King Hobo himself. A brass band of great volume and varied accomplishments furnished the martial air so necessary for a successful parade.

The Athletes know of the Homecoming weekend were split with Chicago. Our cross-country team won easily, but Chicago departed with the long end of the football score. However, it was a glorious battle.

The rapid growth of Illinois is difficult to comprehend, and nothing shows this fact better than the crowds of students that inhabit the campus at all hours of the day. Our's is a busy little city.

The whole University turned out to welcome General Pershing on his first visit to Illinois. The General seemed to enjoy it, and "Prexy" doesn't appear the least bit fussed in the presence of "Black Jack".

Speeches were held in the Armory, and the review of the brigade brought back a touch of the pomp of the war days. It was a gala day for the twin cities.

ATHLETICS

The Athletic Department

George A. Huff, director of athletics and the leader of the best balanced collegiate coaching staff in the country, stands for the best that there is in true athletic sportsmanship. His coaches, every one of them, have produced championship teams, and in track, baseball, and football, Illinois has won more than her share of the titles.

Mr. Huff's ability to select men is one of his characteristics. There is a balance to his corps of coaches that so well characterizes most of the Illini teams, and all down the line of men of importance in this list are true "fighting Illini" coaches.

Instrumental in making the training as beneficial and convenient as possible to the Illinois athlete are David "Matt" Bullock, trainer and massage specialist, and Ben Crackle, manager of equipment. The staff is one of thoroughness and completeness.

DAVID "MATT" BULLOCK, trainer and massage specialist.

BEN CRACKLE,
manager of equipment.

The Athletic Board of Control

F. SCHARFENBERG

The Athletic Board of Control is the chief governing body of the athletic department, and is composed of student team managers and several faculty members. Its chief duty is to pass upon the awarding of the biggest athletic prize for performance under competition,—the "I." In the spring of each year, the athletic board selects the managers and the junior and sophomore assistant managers of all teams for the coming season of sports. The student chairman of the board this past year was Frank A. Scharfenberg, manager of the baseball team.

On the Gridiron

"Zuppke's fighting Illini beat Ohio State." This statement has been made in former seasons, but at times when it never could have meant so much as it did when eleven Orange and Blue Indians fought back the undefeated Buckeyes and won 7-0.

This game alone marked the success of the 1921 football season, for it pictured eleven fighting Zuppmen, who had not scored a touchdown against a conference opponent before the finale at Columbus, smearing the powerful Buckeyes, who had not been scored upon till the Illini battle. It was a great victory, its chief significance being that it blurred Ohio State Championship hopes, making Iowa the top-notch conference eleven.

The Illini team was big, but inexperienced, and injuries in wholesale numbers snatched away all chances for a leading aggregation. The squad played mediocre football the entire route, but had it played as it did at Ohio State, during the entire season, the title would have been at Illinois.

Captain Laurie Walquist, Jack Crangle, Al Mohr, Chuck Carney, Johnny Sabo, Milt Olander, Don Peden, Joe Sternaman, Tabe Tabor, and Dick Reichle compose the list of veterans who played their last game for Illinois at Ohio State. Don Peden was elected captain for next year, but because of previous competition at Milliken, was declared ineligible, Dave Wilson receiving the captain honors at a second election.

"Al" played guard and center—not both at once. He ended his fourth season of football as a mainstay of Tuppke's crew.

D. D. WILSON

"Dave", captain-elect, played a crafty game at end. His exceptional performance at Ohio State represented Dave at his best.

D. C. PEDEN

"Don" was the speediest halfback in the west, his open-field running and finish in clever tactics winning him the honor of all-conference halfback.

J. P. SABO, JR.

"Johnny" was small for an end, but he made the Ohio Staters look like pygmies and his arms hauled down many passes.

C. R. CARNEY

"Chuck" was outplayed in a few games, but was not the Carney of two seasons ago, for his knee was still in bad condition.

J. T. STERNAMAN

"Little Joe" was the Indian triple threat artist, his drop-kicking and elusive open-field running featuring for the Illini.

H. B. TABOR

"Tabe" was a flashy full-back, not heavy, but with just enough speed and fight to give him a place of prominence on the Illini squad.

W. F. CRANGLE

"Jack" ended his fourth season ripping through the Ohio State defensive and stopping their conference titular drive. He was a great full-back.

P. T. ANDERSON

"Andie", a true representative of the "fighting Illini" spirit, won a berth at tackle by his craftiness and ability to punt.

O. H. VOGEL

"Otts" appeared in football attire for the first time and showed real promise as a steady linesman for Zuppke next year.

R. W. REICHE

"Dick" changed from end to guard at the first of the season, and ended his curriculum on the gridiron in good style.

P. S. DURANT

"Dutch" went strong, won a berth as a star halfback because of his ability and then broke his shoulder.

M. M. OLANDER

"Milt" was the leading factor in the Illini line. His steadiness characterized him as Zup's most heady player. This was his fourth season.

C. T. DRAYER

"Shorty" was the Illini giant tackle whom opposing players looked up to. He was a fighter and showed exceptional skill in defensive play.

J. W. McMILLEN

"Mac" came under the class of "big Indians." He took Depler's place at center and used his power to good advantage.

G. DAWSON

"George" looked good to Zup at half because of his ability to pass, punt and run well, but an injured knee hindered him.

H. C. WOODWARD

"Zupke's Butcher Boy" shared honors at fullback with Crangle and did remarkably well. Next season he will be a terror on the Illini team.

National Champions in Track

Winning the first national collegiate track and field championship meet, copping more honors than any opponent in the Penn, Drake, and Illini relays, taking the indoor and outdoor conference track and field meets, and swamping five teams in dual contests, the Illinois track team unquestionably had its greatest season.

Coach Harry Gill developed a team of record-breakers that made the name of Illinois famous. In every event the Orange and Blue cinder athletes were strong, giving the team a balance of power in the contests in which it entered, whether it was dual meet, conference championship contest, or relay carnival.

Dewey Alberts broke the national collegiate high jump mark, while H. M. Osborne copped the national championship high jump and hop, step, and jump events at the Penn Relays. Johnny Weiss copped first in the discus here, and Illinois, with McGinnis, Wharton, Yates, Brown and Donohoe, copped the distance medley and four mile relay championship of America.

Track Scores:

Illinois 66, Notre Dame 29; Illinois $82\frac{1}{2}$, Iowa $21\frac{1}{2}$; Indoor Conference, Illinois first (45 points); Illinois $73\frac{1}{2}$, Notre Dame $52\frac{1}{2}$; Illinois 83, Michigan 52; Illinois 99, Wisconsin 36; First National Collegiate A. A. meet, Illinois first ($20\frac{1}{4}$ points).

Captain "Johnny", after being ill during the indoor season, made a strong comeback outdoors and proved himself a century king in the conference, despite the 10 flat competition.

G. F. MCGINNIS

"Gordie", running with a rhythmic stride that Coach Gill declared to be close to perfect, was the Illini sensation in the one mile run. He starred in cross country running, and then won the conference indoor and outdoor one mile championships.

R. F. WHARTON

"Russ" is Coach Gill's second Mike Mason, runs with such an easy-speedy stride that conference two milers found him too flashy for them. He is conference champion indoors and outdoors, and now holds the two mile indoor record.

D. V. ALBERTS
"Dewey", the Urbana sky-lark, leaped 6 feet 4 1/8 inches to a new indoor conference record, and then jumped 6 feet 5 1/8 inches in an outdoor dual meet, which is better than the western intercollegiate mark.

J. N. WEISS
"Johnny" was the most powerful of the Indian weightmen, was always a winner in the discus throw and usually placed in the shot put. He won the discus throw at the Penn Relays.

H. M. OSBORNE
"Ozzie" proved himself the all-around champion on the Illini team. His win over Alberts in the high jump at the Penn Relays, where he also copped the hop step and jump event, made him famous.

E. C. BREDE
"Irv" made the greatest throw in the javelin event in the conference when he hurled the missile 192 feet 9 inches in a dual contest, but his sore arm prevented a repetition in the conference meet.

E. D. BROWN
"Dave" was a consistent half miler of much prominence on the Illinois aggregation, and oftentimes changed to the mile run when he was needed in a relay race. In relay races Dave was best, but he also showed class in the fastest races.

B. B. PATTERSON
"Tex" was one of the Illini mainstays in the one mile run and his long legs carried him over the distance in front of all opponents in the many relay races Illinois copped during the course of the season.

H. S. WALLACE
"Wallie", although a new man on the Gill squad, was the Illini flash in the indoor low hurdles, and a consistent winner of points in the outdoor events.

W. B. OVERBEE
"Bill" always showed much form in his broad jumping and in taking the hop step and jump. At one time he held the national collegiate record in the hop step and jump.

D. W. FIELDS
"Dave" was not only a quarter miler of conference note, but he was Coach Gill's best 220 yard dashman and one of the best in the Big Ten. His pretty stride carried him to many victories.

P. C. SWEET

"Paul" showed a finish in his quarter mile running that put the best of his opponents to the rear on the home stretch. He is a strong runner and capable of a fast finish in every race.

F. H. SCHLAPPIZZI

"Fred" showed power in his legs in every 440 yard event in which he competed, and was especially crafty in wedging his way to the pole in his relay racing. He scored many points for the Gill team.

P. H. DONOHOE

"Phil" ranked high in quarter miler circles and won most of his races during the year. His consistent speed over the distance made him Gill's most dependable anchor man on the mile relay team.

P. B. DUSENBERRY
"Dusie" led a double life, changing from his regular two mile event to half that distance at regular intervals.

H. R. MATHIAS
"Heinie" displayed his best form in the Illini Relay carnival by placing in the all-around event.

F. U. NAUGHTON, JR.
"Frank" always made the craftiest of two milers step out at a speedy clip early in the race, for it was his method of running to tire his opponents.

E. S. WELLS
"Eddie" went strong in the one mile run, his consistent running winning him a berth on the team.

S. H. WALLACE
"Sam" showed his burst of speed over the low and high barriers in the outdoor events and tied the Illinois track record in the 220 yard low hurdles.

J. C. ALLMAN
"Johnny" was the Illini's best cross country runner and then stepped a pretty two mile in track.

Relay Carnival

championship relay four broke the present record in this event when it stepped the distance in 18 minutes 17 seconds. Gordon McGinnis copped the 1500 yard special in 3 minutes 42 4-5 seconds which was a new race and therefore a new mark. H. Smith Wallace copped first in the 75 yard low hurdles. Illinois also won six seconds.

It was truly an Illinois meet, with Avery Brundage, former Illini track athlete, referee; Frank Cayou, Indian athlete here in 1908, head starter; President Kinley, honorary referee; Major John L. Griffith, referee of the all-around championship event; and John Gibson, manager of the entire relay classic. The Orange and Blue Band, under director A. A. Harding, furnished the music.

Big Ten Champions in Baseball

Coach Carl Lundgren celebrated his return to Illini as coach of the Orange and Blue baseball squad with a championship. Illinois won seventeen hard games, losing but three and those to teams whom the Illini defeated in later contests.

Illinois was one of the few teams in the country to beat the Japs from Waseda, Tommy McCann pitching a great 1 to 0 victory. The team was famous for its air-tight playing and heavy slugging. Coach Lundgren, himself a big league pitcher, developed a corps of twirlers in Jackson, McCann, Barnes and Bunker that could not be equaled.

The team, although consisting mostly of sophomores, had two seniors of special note in Captain Tom Johnson and Julie Mee. Captain-elect McCurdy, Crossley and Crangle were the only juniors, the remainder of the squad being second year men.

Following are the scores:

Illinois 9 Mississippi 1; Illinois 15 Mississippi 0; Illinois 1 Miss. A & M. 7; Illinois 7 Miss. A. & M. 1; Illinois 6 Alabama 5; Illinois 5 Alabama 6; Illinois 9 Northwestern 0; Illinois 3 Ohio State 2; Illinois 8 Chicago 2; Illinois 12 Iowa 2; Illinois 5 Notre Dame 2; Illinois 2 Notre Dame 1; Illinois 6 Ohio State 3; Illinois 10 Chicago 1; Illinois 9 Wisconsin 8; Illinois 5 Iowa 2; Illinois 5 Wisconsin 0; Illinois 1 Waseda (Japan) 0; Illinois 3 Michigan 2; Illinois 4 Michigan 10.

R. MERSBACH

G. THOMAS
Junior Manager

E. T. JOHNSON
Captain "Tom" finished his third year of baseball with a Big Ten championship. Although he was handicapped with a sprained ankle, Tom held his position in right field with unusual ability and was very active.

F. C. DOUGHERTY
"Doc" was but a sophomore, but there wasn't a better or more clever catcher in the conference. He bats left-handed and is a slugger. Both from the backstop and hitting angles he was one of the Indian team's most dependable.

P. J. STEWART
"Stew" was a pleasure to watch, guarding the third sack in his unique and clever way. "Nothing goes past Stew" became the password. He also featured at bat, his wallop at Michigan in the ninth winning the title.

C. L. JACKSON

"Jack" was the Indian Ace who faced most of the opponents. He took the mound in what were expected to be the deciding games for the Big Ten Championship. His remarkable control plus speed put the Illini in front.

O. H. VOGEL

"Otts", Lundy's sophomore King of Swat, was famous for his long string of home runs. Opposing pitchers found nothing that checked his streak of hitting that earned him the title "the Babe Ruth of the conference".

E. N. HELLSTROM

"Swede", although only a sophomore, came through with as many hits in pinches as any player on the team, and he held down the second base with unusual ability. This season should mark him as invincible.

T. J. McCANN

"Tommy", only a sophomore, was one of Lundy's Aces and a strong pitcher. His 1 to 0 win over the Japs from Waseda saw Tommy at his best, for his benders plus plenty of smoke baffled the men from the Orient.

J. E. MEE

"Julie" was the greatest short stop in the conference and Coach Lundgren's "lead-off" man in the lineup. He had his peg to first so timed that he could spend most of his time nabbing the ball.

D. C. PEDEN

"Don" covered left field with exceptional skill, but his best work was done at bat, pounding out timely swats when they were most needed. He is expected to go even better this season.

R. A. BARNES
"Lefty" became famous in collegiate baseball circles when he twirled a no hit, no run, no walk game against Northwestern, sending across the pan an assortment of effective slants and hops.

W. F. CRANGLE
"Jack" showed that he was not only a gridiron star, but also an outfielder with a hitting eye that gave him a steady berth on the Illini nine. He was fast in making his decisions and a timely hitter.

E. H. BUNKER
"Eddie" was an excellent moundsman and should prove his worth with his fast ones this season. His pitching had everything except control, but indications point to his having a big year in the box this year.

C. F. CROSSLEY
"Hap" covered the garden right field during Captain Tom's absence and played the game so well that Lundy used him with much regularity. In short he was one of the best fielders.

P. S. DURANT
"Dutch" was utility third baseman and such a good one that his chances this year in the infield are excellent. He filled in when something went wrong with the regulars and showed some fine playing.

L. E. MOHR
"Lewie", being only a sophomore, did not get the opportunity to show his twists and speed in any of the conference games, but he earned a place on the pitching staff by his persistent work and ability.

On the Basketball Floor

With rather poor early season prospects for a good basket squad, Coach Frank Winters created a combination of Captain Chuck Carney, Laurie Walquist, Stilwell, Johnny Sabo and Hap Collins that loomed as invincible. But the quintet was broken with the loss of Walquist, and the Illini coach was forced to seek another combination. In reorganizing the team, Walter Roettger, Roland Popken, Otto Vogel, Stilwell and Tabor were used alternately, but the team was not the same.

Its record of 14 victories and 5 defeats was especially remarkable because two of the defeats came by one basket and two more by teams that were later defeated by the Winters men. Captain Carney led the conference in shooting for the second time, while Sabo, Collins and Tabor played their last games in glory.

Following are the scores:

Illinois 35 Illinois Wesleyan 19; Illinois 32 Knox 24; Illinois 35 Milliken 20; Illinois 49 Notre Dame 38; Illinois 40 Notre Dame 27; Illinois 30 Butler 28; Illinois 48 Ohio State 36; Illinois 34 Milliken 33; Illinois 16 Chicago 22; Illinois 29 Purdue 28; Illinois 23 Wisconsin 25; Illinois 29 Minnesota 28; Illinois 20 Michigan 17; Illinois 28 Minnesota 18; Illinois 41 Ohio State 22; Illinois 16 Michigan 42; Illinois 37 Wisconsin 35; Illinois 25 Chicago 26; Illinois 31 Purdue 39.

J. P. SABO, JR.

"Johnny", every inch a fighter and because of his speed and ability to dribble the ball the length of the floor in a sensational manner, was considered by most sport critics the most clever floor guard in the conference. He delighted in taking the ball away from his opponent while on the run.

W. S. COLLINS

"Hap" was not a flashy player, but so consistent that near the end of the season he was near perfection. His good judgment in taking the right man in pinches saved many games for Illinois, especially those which were won by a narrow margin.

H. B. TABOR

"Tabe" was a husky forward and speedy. It was his knowledge of dodging and turning, which he acquired in football, that made him elusive and one of the Illinois features.

O. H. VOGEL

"Ot" was heavy enough to be a back guard, but he was fast and all that was necessary to make a forward, so Coach Winters made good use of him in chalking up Illini tallies, for his basket-shooting eye was good.

W. H. ROETTGER

"Wallie" looked like Illinois' best center, but just then he broke his wrist in practice, which kept him from play until the last game at Lafayette. In this tilt he showed unusual skill in baffling the Purdue guards.

L. M. STILWELL

"Shorty" was new to college basketball and somewhat stiff in the first few games, but showed many streaks of brilliance throughout the season. As a center he was rangy and tall enough to outjump the tallest in the conference.

G. E. POTTER

"Potsy" was Coach Winter's midget, but whenever he was loose, the Illini score increased. At Minnesota, and here in the Wisconsin game, his shots from mid-floor won both games.

R. H. POPKEN

"Rollie" was only a sophomore, but he was a regular whirlwind in his floor-work. He pulled the close Wisconsin-Illinois game out of the fire when he dropped in the tieing counter with a minute to play.

Tennis

Captain George Preucil, Strawbridge, Yeager and Brown were mainstays of the Orange and Blue racquet team, while Myers, Storer and Dubach were first class players. Yeager and Preucil proved themselves star racquetters in the Big Ten when they defeated the supposedly invincible combination of Bastian and De Marcus of Indiana in the first round of the conference doubles, 6-1, 3-6, 6-4. In the second round they defeated the Northwestern pair, 6-0, 6-2 and won their way to the finals by defeating Hane and Wirthwein of Ohio State, 6-2, 6-4, 6-1. Vories and Segal of Chicago proved themselves the pair that could stand best the terrific pace through five hot sets and defeated the Illinois combination 6-1, 2-6, 6-3, 5-7, 6-0.

In the fall Coach Bearg took his team on the first tennis trip into the south. The team, which consisted of Captain George Preucil, M. K. Dubach, F. R. Myers and B. W. Storer took Bradley Institute to count with two straight victories of 6 matches apiece. Moving farther south to Norman, Oklahoma, the Orange and Blue quartet split even on their two day twin bill, winning in the first series 3 matches to 2 and losing the final, 4 matches to 2. At Southwestern College, Winfield, Kansas, Illinois won 3 to 0 and repeated with the same score against St. Louis University. Washington University took the last two of the series, 5-1 and 5-1. The fall tennis season proved itself worthy of praise for Illinois did remarkably well in every contest.

After the most hotly fought inter-class football season that has ever been staged in the University the Sophomores coped all honors.

Winning the inter-class soccer championship, the Juniors proved themselves the most skilled team in the University. They won the title as freshmen and were undefeated last year.

Defeating the Tekes in the final game of the intramural baseball season, the Apaches won another championship. The Tekes copped the fraternity division of the tournament.

The American Association of Engineers is the largest national engineering society, with a membership of thirty thousand. Its activities are non-technical; its objects are "to raise the standards of ethics of the engineering profession, and to promote the economic and social welfare of engineers."

The local student chapter has an active membership of over two hundred, including prominent faculty men and engineering students of all courses and classes. In line with the objects of the national organization, it tries to further the interests of A. A. E. and to become acquainted with social and economic questions, industrial problems, and the like which confront the engineering profession and which are necessarily somewhat neglected in engineering courses.

In addition, the local chapter has this purpose always before it: to take the initiative and an active part in every project which has for its object the betterment of the College of Engineering as a whole, or the improvement of individual engineering students.

PEDEN HONORED BY KEWANEEANS

KELLOGG, Ill., Nov. 29.—(Special to the Post-Herald) —A number of Illinoisans from other sections of the state, more than one hundred in all, attended aousing reception and dinner at the Parkside Hotel here Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Peden, this city, as an appreciation for his election to the captaincy of the Kewanee Illinois football team next season. Illinois football team in state football circuit, became known upon the Kewanee team man at the annual banquet given by Illinois team by the Champaign County club early last week.

The annual Saturday was truly a success and demonstrated in a small way that the equality of the two teams had the blessing of the Illinois team. Many men and other college men, bankers, engineers, business men, high school students, were gathered there to pay tribute to Kewanee football.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Alma Mater
It is odd for people to think that the University of Illinois is the alma mater of the Zeta Psi Fraternity, because we have no dormitory or sleep dorms; the word "alma mater" is derived from a Greek name of a Greek New Year goddess who was the mother of the people.

It is true however for us to call the University of Illinois our alma mater. We haven't been in it so long that we can appreciate the value of the chapter, but we do know that it is a great place to be. During the next semester we will pitch in and work for the Alma Mater as our brother or father or mother. We will emerge from the room, smarter with knowledge.

AUSTIN GIRL ELECTED

Sophomore Class of University of Illinois Names Miss Pearl Dee Hall, of 816 Central Secretary

Miss Pearl Dee Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hall, of 816 Central, has been elected secretary of the sophomore class at the University of Illinois at the time of a election on which she was unopposed, having no leading competitor. Miss Hall is generally known in the room where she attended school and particularly in some of the big civic organizations.

The electoral committee reported the election to the head girl by a vote of 52 to 7 after a heated election period. The fact that the class numbers are 2,200 indicates that the honor of being an officer is a distinguished one. Miss Hall is interested in the journalistic department.

She was graduated from Austin High School in 1919 and has been a member of the class since her entrance to the university accepted its placement for a year. While in High School and during the succeeding years she was a member of the Glee Club and was a member of one of the small clubs and socials prominent.

Her chief achievement in a career up to date is the organization of the annual campaign of the Business Men's Association, when she served as leader of the group of girls working most assiduously for the campaign. She serves on the finance committee of the club and is interested in the work of various clubs.

Miss Hall has been a member of the class ever since her election to the office of 1921. Notwithstanding her youth, she has a decided interest in all school affairs. It will probably be considered soon that Austin is honored by the election of the greatest girl by the sophomore class.

ORGANIZATIONS

And in the next cage we have the Bresee family who have been imported from the wilds of Mattoon at great expense by the immortal P. T. Barnum, who is now dead and gone. From left to right—Little Tiz Bresee—T. K. E., Paul Bresee—Alpha Gamma Rho, and Jimmie Bresee—Triangle. Yes ladies—just one of these animals in a house is plenty.

A close-up of Jerry Flaherty's window at the Beta house the day of election.

THE DUMB BELLE

The story of an innocent freshman who was first rushed Kappa.

Scene I: The first scene shows our heroine and one of the sisters in front of the Kappa House.

Scene II: The next one shows our dear girl being locked out of the Alpha Chi house. They had already pledged their quota of twenty-five.

Scene III: As a last resort she accepted a Delta Gamma pledge lest her poor teddy might be left in the cold. She now romps happily on the Delta Gamma steps with her brute.

Organizations (Continued)

Someone remarked that this subject needs no title. We'd hate to take the responsibility.

The winning title to our picture—"Two Phi Kappa Taus, Jack and 'Heb'".

And we might add, "All for Love," and, "The Battle of Work and Play."

Ye Cistern

Sorority girls are the pick, I was told,
As into this teary vale's portals I strode.
Take the Kappas, the Thetas, the gentle Chi Os
Not to mention the D. G's. and Alpha Chi Os,
The Pi Phis and others, thrice blessed is that male
Whose spirit before these co-eds doth not quail.
They are true, high and noble. Full roundly 'twas sworn.
Old Barnum was right, every moment one's born.

The Theta ice castle, the haughty girl's lair
Where dwell the sad sirens that give men the air,
Holds millions and millions of gunny sacks huge.
Good, worthy men hold them, the eistern t' amuse.
Sweet Irma was Prom queen, made quite a display.
The formal on basketball night spread dismay.
So the sisters, in order to clear up the mess,
Took dates to the basketball game in full dress.

The Kappas, the fat things, have records galore
And turn, twist and exercise over the floor.
To Meryle Pratt, Eleanor Taylor, alas,
Add Edith Kohl, Florene Mai and Casanas—
For avoirdupois, this quintette has no peer
But the Vic will reduce them to phantoms, I fear.
"I'd rather not," wailed as a faltering plea
Is the mode of refusal in fair K. K. G.

"Twas said by the poet, "To fat men the world
Gives naught of good will." 'Tis the same with the girl
Mused the Alpha Chi Os as they viewed Martha Pyke
And bought a Vic record for Anna Joe Wright.
The girls must keep house rules (rushees please take note).
To Dorothy Wiles goes a sympathy vote
For trips to Chicago week out and week in.
May she comfort her sweetie and soon wear his pin.

In roping of pledges, D. Gs. use the head—
At rush times no oleo ruins their bread,
But rieh, creamery butter, the best kale can bring—
Well, just pop the question, the pledge song we'll sing.
Athletics for athletes, each man plays the game:
Es Lewis then plays with the athletes of fame.
The sisters are agents for Eskimo Pie
For with tin foil they'll build them a house bye and bye.

The bashful Chi Os ever cry, "I'm just sick."

So they should, for their work in the field politic
Drew blank, with both Nellie and Isabel Nims

Who succumbed to the voter's caprices and whims.
To the victors, however, go most of the spoils;

Then to Tri Delt award three brass cans full of oil.
These girls served in Prehn's for a whole afternoon
To build a dream castle clear up to the moon.

Bright sunshine of John street, each day they parade—

In borrowed clothes comes, "Sigma Kappa parade."
To Lumpy of Wickersham pledge we a toast.

May the Sultan of Shad be to Ella a host.
Janaice leads the sisters in company front

As, bearing their arms full of tin foil, they grunt,
"Contribute, Illini, our rent's overdue
And we're trying to build us a domicile new."

Great Scandahoovians, Russians and Swedes!

No wonder 'tis mourned, "A. D. Pi's gone to seeds."
Pat Olson was greeting a little Sig Chi
But she missed the boob's hand and he got a black eye.
Add D. Z. to D. Z. Now see what you've got.
Why, dizzies or disease, the choice is by lot.
By formal reception, the Alpha Phi crew
Burst into the campus and social whirl, too.

The rythmical tramping of myriad feet
Makes the villagers dwelling on peaceful Church Street
To gape and remark as they spy Hester Srount
Conducting the A. O. Pi cistern about.
At last to the spiritualistic abode
Strides Hester, et cetera, sleuths a la mode.
But finding no spooks, Hester steps to the fore
And pounds the piano while spirits yell, "More."

Imbibers in Mosi's one day were surprised
When an ad for a dance up in Chi met their eyes.
The "Gamma Phi Beta A. A." was the name—
Alumni were giving a dance was the game.
B. Gray is a loss, Helen Welch is no less.
The cellar gang's numbers are sadly depressed.
Peg Hyland approaches. Away! Come away!
She'll be shaking our hands till the end of the day.

Grass widows, the pride of the Residence Hall,
All bow to the queen of the Officer's Ball.
At courting for honors, Helene is right there.
She lassoed Boyd Bullock by hands, feet and hair.
She had him to dinner, she fed him at noon;
'Tis rumored they spooned by the light of the moon.
She got what she wanted, she lead the parade—
Boyd Bulloek's now seeking a more faithful jade.

Mick Murphy, another inmate of the place,
Is called Irish wash woman straight to her face.
The rest of the freaks are too many to name.
That's how Women's Residence Hall sprang into fame.
"Go lightly," reminds one of Mildred Goelitz
Who was one of the operatta's musical hits.
O'er night, she was famous, this Alpha Gam frosh:
Her rise up to fame's like a tale of Siwash.

The Pi Phis, long active, were quiet this year
And except for the name few would know they were here.
Blanche Shirley, their beauty, at last found her man—
Betty Boggs is to follow as soon as she can.
Mareella, dear, "Drink to me with thine own eyes,"
But please don't look at me. Cross eyes I despise
Achoth or acorn, artiehoke or a cough—
It all makes you laugh like a joke at the Orph.

Not the sunshine of John street—these differ by far.
They're the Alpha Xi Delta girls, way below par.
Bright moonshine of Daniel street's more of a name;
The charm of their presence's like gin to the brain.
"How do you get that way?" (Oh, how inane)
The pretense of innocence drives me insane.
In spite of the efforts of Phi Betes, a pair,
Their scholarship grade disappeared in thin air.

And now that this ditty of co-eds is o'er
We hope trust and pray that no one gets sore.
Truly impartial, all roasted alike.
Some of you didn't get half what you might.
But look at the other side, true recompense,—
Free advertisement with naught of offense
To be taken by anyone. Please be polite
And give us your kisses and none of your spite.

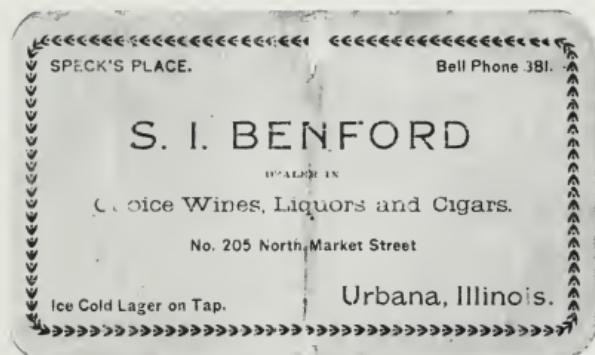

Ye Olde Phi Delt Grate

Oft on a wintry night—when the Phi Delt's were all tucked in bed—the midnight rounders would gather about its glowing coals and swap stories.

No one would depart from thence 'til the last flickering ember had sizzled out. Apples were served and a good time was had by all.

Campus Dramatics

Harold Eekart—director of some of the best movies of the year.

"Sari" brought forth the best criticism.

His latest, "Rolling a Senior Ball," featuring Miss Mulberry and Mr. Peterson, supported by no one—was censored by T. N. E. and public opinion.

Ed Tukey—star in the "Seven Veils," shown in a rather unconventional pose.

His pastime is catching soft water while it is raining hard.

Little Jerry Baethke appearing in the old favorite—"Get Rich Quick Wallingford." Yes, girls—they're hunting for carpet tacks.

Miss Doris Glidden and Mr. Robert Malcolmson featuring in the Mack Sennet Comedy, "Nothing to a Fender."

HIS MASTER'S VOICE

A Real Description of This.

A boy is justly proud when he has done something worth while, and has earned his honest living by the sweat of his brow.

So Ralph Naylor is justly proud because he has earned $200.00 since he became a Post Boy, because he has posted $14.00 of his earnings in the Austin State Bank. Ralph wrote me as follows:

MORNING & EVENING EDITIONS

Tue. Aug. 19, 1913, Austin, Tex.
Post Boy.

Dear Father: I have been saving my Post fee a little more than last spring. I have 67¢ which is about what I have saved since summer began. I am about 6 miles without telegraph wires.

Not one Thursday night I went to bed at the Eleventh Station until after 6:20 p.m. My mother's work has done me well as I have never been so full as I am now.

At eight o'clock I go to school. After school I deliver to about fifty regular customers, and my friends when the weather is clear. After finishing my work I go home.

Ralph Naylor

Ralph Naylor isn't a bit brighter or more ambitious than your boy can be. When like Ralph, your boy has earned $200.00 and saved $132.00 of it the business man of your city will point to your son as Ralph's friend, point to him and say:

"There goes a successful young man. We expect big things of him."

Let us take a look ahead to your boy's business future. What he is going to be a lawyer, a salesman, a physician, a buyer. Whatever he is going to be, it is to be successful he must possess the power of persuading others to his viewpoint. He must have the ability to convince by reasoning.

Any boy who sells THE SATURDAY EVENING POST must, in succeeding, acquire this power for it is the essence of the plan.

A Gateway to Progress

There it stands—a simple forty-foot gateway but unlike any other in the entire world. Through it have come many of the engineering ideas that have made this an electrical America.

The story of electrical development begins in the Research Laboratories. Here the ruling spirit is one of knowledge—truth—rather than immediate practical results. In this manner are established new theories-tools for future use—which sooner or later find ready application.

The great industries that cluster around Niagara Falls, the electrically driven battleships, the trolley cars and electrified railways that carry millions, the lamps that glow in homes and streets, the household conveniences that have relieved women of drudgery, the labor-saving electrical tools of factories, all owe their existence, partly at least, to the co-ordinated efforts of the thousands who daily stream through this gateway.

The Organic Chemical Industry

This industry, in the light of modern developments, has become essential to the industrial life of this country, and it is on chemical research that nine-tenths of our commercial enterprises depend for their existence and progress.

The National Aniline & Chemical Company, Inc., has been a pioneer and leader in this work, and is today the first and largest manufacturer of coal-tar dyes in the United States.

A Trap That Can't Air-Bind

because it discharges the air and gas as well as the water.

The only moving part in a Johns-Manville Radiator Trap is a hollow, copper ball which floats up and down with the water level in the trap. When the water level drops, the ball drops and gradually rolls over the discharge orifice, thus throttling down the outflow and maintaining sufficient water in the trap to provide a water seal and prevent leakage of steam. When the water level raises the ball, the discharge orifice is exposed and the water is free to flow out of the trap.

Write for further literature; it contains valuable information, and it might come in handy some time.

Johns-Manville, Inc.

Michigan Ave. and 18th Street
Chicago, Illinois

Requires no adjustment; nothing to get out of order; noiseless; positive and continuous in operation; without steam leakage, and it cannot air-bind.

The Best Known Implement Trademark In the World

Sentiment and strict business sense combine to make the famous John Deere trade-mark a constant and powerful incentive to maintenance and improvement of quality in the production of John Deere tools.

In sentiment, the trade-mark is as a good family name that must be kept free from debasement.

In strict business sense, the trade-mark is a badge of quality that attracts purchasers and that must be rigidly upheld in order to keep the confidence of the buying public.

To debase a single article bearing the John Deere trade-mark would be to weaken the confidence of the buying public in the entire line of John Deere tools.

We are justly proud of the great institution that has grown up back of the John Deere trade-mark, and we realize that our future development depends mainly upon the continued significance to the public of the familiar emblem that is stamped on all John Deere tools.

DID YOU EVER THINK OF THIS?

If a fellow tries to kiss a woman and gets away with it, he's a man, if he tries and doesn't get away with it, he's a brute; if he doesn't try to kiss her but would get away with it if he tried, he's a coward; and if he doesn't try to kiss her and wouldn't get away with it if he tried, he's a wise man.

THE LAW STUDENT

A lawyer was conning his awful books
So heavy, so dull, so dry.
Wherefore he looked up from them often and oft
And lamped a co-ed that went by.
And therefore he gazed again and again,
And twain to the Oak Tree they fled.
"I fear," so he muttered, "I'm going to court."
He did; this is what the man said:

"Whereas the party of the second part
(That, my dearie, is me)
Feels deep affection, as he solemnly affirms
For the party of the first part—thee.
Why can't the party of the first part, dear,
And the party of the second part, too,
Have a party called a wedding of the parties concerned
And cancel the "part" part? ...do!"

PRICE — PROMPT SHIPMENT — QUALITY

Producer and Public Served by the Modern Grain Exchange

The Chicago Board of Trade is a meeting place for the buyers and sellers of actual grain and other foodstuffs.

The so-called speculative market is merely an important element in that marketing. It is a principle of economies that there can be no ownership of property without risk. Whether a transaction be in real estate, bonds, brick, wheat or what not, the element of risk is present. It is all a speculation. The grain exchange system has harnessed speculation and made it serve the public good.

The speculative market in grain makes hedging, or price insurance, possible. Hedged grain is grain which carries insurance against loss to the owner by price changes. It covers the raw product from country elevator to mill. This insurance is as necessary as insurance on one's house.

As the speculative market alone affords this insurance its important place in grain marketing must be recognized. By reason of this protection the farmer receives more for his grain; the consumer pays less.

The Chicago Board of Trade invites the student body, the faculty and the alumni to visit the world grain market. Literature descriptive of the functions of the grain exchange may be had on request, either in person or by letter.

A bore at eating times, is Agriculture Jake.
With uncombed hair and raucous rimes, he's surely quite a rake.
He lives on fertilizing schemes, hay chokes his rowdy cheers;
Dairy-maids content his dreams and horse-hairs fill his ears.

The Engineer's a hard old nut, a clumsy, grimy dolt,
Whose hair is left to grow uncut—his comb a greasy bolt.
The only dates that he can get are lady engineers.
When out with them you're safe to bet, he only buys three beers.

JOKE I. (RIDDLE)

Q.—Why is an elephant like a piano?

A.—Because there is a B in both.

Note: The B has no reference whatsoever to either the elephant or the piano but refers to the word both, whose initial letter is B. This a prominent example of one of our best types of so-called humor. It is known as the Misplaced Kick Variety. Laugh is optional.

JOKE II. (COARSE JOKE)

Q.—What course do you expect to graduate in?

A.—In the course of time.

Note: This course is not listed in the curriculum. It is merely an idiomatic expression used by the hoi poloi. Laughter.

GUESSING AT NUMBERS

One Way to Secure Poor Service

The Man who "Guessed" that the 5:15 left at 5:25 missed his train. But he didn't disturb any one else—in fact, the other passengers had the use of an extra seat. The man began the practise of using the time table

The man who "guessed" that his friend's telephone number was "1739" when actually it was "1937" also missed the connection he wanted. But—and here is what we object to—he did disturb some one else. He aroused an estimable lady—a patron of ours, who never guesses at numbers—from her afternoon nap; and she, naturally and unfortunately for us, blamed the telephone company for the annoyance!

The water supplied by the Champaign & Urbana Water Company to the Twin Cities is taken from 33 tube wells 160 feet deep, and is pumped into a receiving basin being aerated for the purpose of oxidizing the iron content. It is then pumped to the mechanical filters for the purpose of removing the iron. Liquid Chlorine is introduced into the water before entering the filters in the quantity of four pounds per million gallons of water. The water flows from the filter into the storage reservoirs from which it is pumped into the eighty miles of distributing mains.

JOKE III. (PUN)

Q.—How did nitrates (night rates) originate?

A.—In a hotel.

Note: The dual role played by the important word is cleverly designated by parenthesis. The point depends upon the misunderstanding or the misconstrued interpretation of the original intention.

JOKE IV. (RIDDLED)

Q.—Why is a sidewalk like a barn?

A.—Because they are both cold in winter.

Note 1.—Sidewalks become very cold in winter. This often causes cracking of the cement.

Note 2.—Barns are often unheated during the most rigorous weather. Laugh here.

FINIS

The value and purpose of a yearbook should be to adequately represent, in pictorial style, the complete history of the school year. The management of the 1923 Illio have tried to make this purpose their foremost object. The year 1921-1922 has been significant in many ways. From the standpoint of the after-effect of the War, it has been a normal year, but the successful completion of the great Stadium campaign has branded it a year among many. To the sterling principles embodied in the idea of this great memorial and athletic field, to the Greater Illinois, athletically and morally, this book has been dedicated. It is a certainty that these influences will be felt by the student generations to come.

The editor's task would not be complete if he were to forget a few words of appreciation and commendation for the efforts of those who contributed so heartily toward the compilation of the 1923 Illio. Mr. L. E. Eldridge, managing editor, by efficient management and careful supervision, deserves entire credit for senior and organization sections. To Mr. M. R. Marx, art editor, is due unusual recognition for his ability and care in making the art work an outstanding feature of the book. All section editors were prompt and efficient in the collection and compilation of material for their sections. To the whole staff and all who helped, the editor wishes to express his personal thanks and appreciation.

This book is not the product of one person or a group of persons, but the natural result of co-operative efforts of many. It was only through unselfish teamwork, and the subordination of personal interest that the task has been accomplished. So, if any praise is due, all deserve an equal share.

The Editor.
